

'HALFSQUARE' BEDSIDE TABLE

by Giacomo Moor, for Living Divani

Since founding his studio in 2009, Milanese designer and Wallpaper* Award winner Giacomo Moor has been exploring the creative possibilities offered by working with wood and collaborating with Italy's leading craftspeople. Having created 'Railway', a series of minimalist metal and wood sideboards, for Living Divani last year, Moor has now turned his attention to a similarly pared-back bedside table design. The 'Halfsquare' tables alternate open shelves with drawers that slot into light metal frames, built with triangular vertical uprights. The shape is reflected in the drawer fronts, their slanted sides creating hidden handles. There are two different heights, allowing for different configurations. The steel frames are lacquered with epoxy powder coating, either burnished or in a gunmetal grey colour, while the cabinets and drawers are clad in Canaletto walnut or Striped Grey veneer.
