

Aero B

design Shibuleru

Bar unit composed of a contoured lower shelf, in double-panelled wood, 18mm thick, consisting of a 7cm frame in solid beech wood and board honeycomb, enclosed by two aluminium plates, fitted with holes and bushings to allow assembly of the uprights, provided with two additional round steel supports with integrated height-adjustable PVC foot.

Container compartment consisting of upper top, central body and bottom. Top and bottom in 18mm thick MDF fitted with holes and bushings, to allow the assembly of the uprights, and a contoured runner to house a sliding shutter door made of extruded aluminium. "Blade -handles" 8mm thick, screwed to the shutter. Central body in contoured MDF milled on the outside, with internal side panels and central support shelf in MDF. All MDF components are painted RAL-K7 90107 matt black or RAL-K7 9010 white.

Shutter door, in extruded aluminium available with liquid painted in matt black.

Uprights in steel rod $\varnothing 22\text{mm}$, with inserted fixing element and integrated height-adjustable PVC feet, finish with epoxy powder coating in RAL-K7 9010 white, RAL-K7 9017 black or gunmetal grey. The handles, as standard, follow the finish of the uprights.

