

HALF DOME' FLOOR LAMP by Naoto Fukasawa

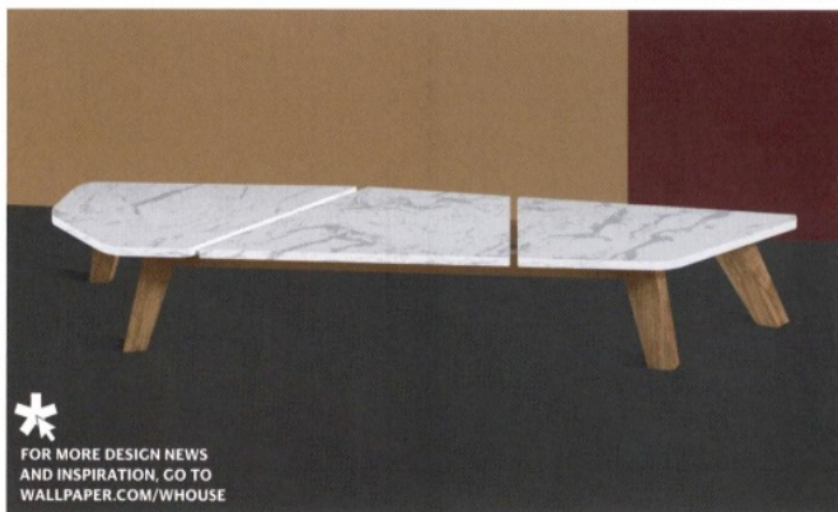

Spanish outdoor specialist Kettal has been in the business for more than 50 years and can be relied on to anticipate what our backyard needs next. In this case, it's more moonlight, courtesy of Japanese designer Naoto Fukasawa and his soft-edged minimalism. Evoking the moon both in shape and in the glow it casts, the 'Half Dome' floor lamp seems suspended in space, thanks to its narrow, seamless stem. Available in a whopping 34 colours and two different bases, Fukasawa's slick lunar homage makes the ideal post-dusk outdoor accessory. The sun may have set, but you'll always have the moon.

'TRIBECA 3666' BENCH by CMP Design

CMP Design's Tribeca collection for Pedrali is a playful, 'pasta-inspired' addition to the Milan-based studio's eclectic repertoire, which spans corporate identities, graphics and industrial product design. Available in six vibrant colours (including this matt salmon pink), the small two-seater bench is a contemporary reworking of the ubiquitous 1960s steel-and-cord patio chair. Its spaghetti-like webbing, vertically woven in extruded PVC with a flexible nylon core, wraps around a tubular powder-coated steel frame to create a lightweight, easy-to-clean and stackable design. The bench is part of an extended family of outdoor products that also includes a matching lounge chair, an armchair and a stool – the perfect summer gathering.

'RAFAEL' COFFEE TABLE by Paola Navone

Asymmetrical, with a crisp, contemporary edge, and yet still somehow organic, this striking coffee table has Paola Navone's design stamp all over it. The marble tabletop (also available in green enamelled lava stone) is fractured into three shards, which are kept together by a sturdy base and legs in distressed teak.

'POLTRONA 02' LOUNGE CHAIR by Piero Lissoni

As Living Divani marks its 50th anniversary, The Uncollected Collection showcases its future vision. The limited-edition series includes two families: one with rounded, oversized silhouettes, the other with sinuous, sculptural forms. Our pick is 'Poltrona 2', a cast-aluminium lounge chair with a chubby form and futuristic sheen, also in red or silver.
