

We've rounded up the must-see events that deserve a spot on your schedule

3 V&A MUSEUM
Sculpture fans: march straight to the V&A. Japanese architect Kengo Kuma – who designed V&A Dundee – is filling the John Madejski Garden with his 'Bamboo Ring' (pictured), highlighting the pliancy, precision and sustainability of the material. Also see the 'Legacy' project, which has paired London's cultural leaders with designers to create an American red oak piece, each crafted by British brand Benchmark. Among the design duos are V&A director Tristram Hunt and Jasper Morrison, and Young Vic artistic director Kwame Kwei-Armah with Tomoko Azumi. 14–22 September Cromwell Road, SW7

I-MADE

AT SAATCHI GALLERY

Italian design maestro Giulio Cappellini turns Chelsea's Saatchi Gallery into Little Italy for the 'Italian Manufacture, Art and Design Exhibition'. The four-day event features talks, workshops and collections by the big guns of Italian design – Living Divani, Moroso, Poltronova and Luceplan to name just a few – as well as 'Take a Seat', Cappellini's showcase of the pieces that have shaped the history of chair design. 19–22 September Saatchi Gallery, Duke of York's HQ, King's Road, London SW3

THE CONRAN SHOP – SELLA CONCEPT

Brompton Design District is always worth a wander during LDF. In-demand studio Sella Concept's display for The Conran Shop's flagship store will showcase Conran products in a futuristic world of floating walls, mirrors and negative space. The aim: to start a conversation about contemporary consumerism. 14–22 September 81 Fulham Road, SW3

8 'LIFE LABYRINTH' BY PATTERNITY

Fans of Patternity will recognise the monochromatic mastery of co-founders Anna Murray and Grace Winteringham in this installation, which is taking over the piazza outside Westminster Cathedral. The modern-day maze – a graphic take on the cathedral's distinctive brickwork – includes wild grasses and flowers, forming a serene space in the bustle of the city. 14–22 September Westminster Cathedral Piazza, SW1E
