

[Sweet smell of success]

It's the beauty of the bottle that gives these winning scents from Jo Malone London's Wild Flowers & Weeds collection prime position on our dressing table. Naturally, they smell divine too. Nettle & Wild Achillea cologne; Willow & Amber cologne, both £49 for 30ml (jomalone.co.uk)

HEDGE YOUR BETS

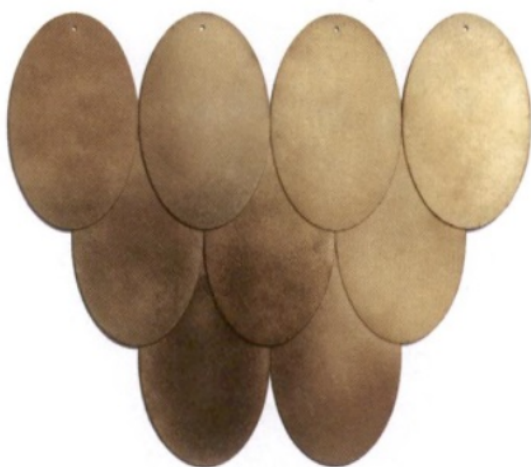

Unpredictable weather patterns mean Brits would do well to invest in furniture that can be whipped in and out of the house at a moment's notice. So it's just as well that Anthropologie's Parker sofa has been designed for indoor and outdoor use, clad as it is in a weather-resistant material built to withstand April showers. It's printed with yellow stripes to keep you feeling cheerful when they do start. £1,798 (anthropologie.com)

ROCK STEADY

If great design is a game of proportions, then Living Divani's Pebble vanity, with its chunky marble top seeming to rest weightlessly on a thin steel frame, must be considered a triumph. Factor in its rotating mirror and you can add pampering practicality to its list of accolades. An option to take away the mirror and add a drawer unit with three open compartments means it doubles as a writing desk too.

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN'

Do wall-to-wall sequins sound like the stuff of Pinterest fantasy? Then look to Clé for the real deal. Created with San Francisco-based clothing and lifestyle designer Erica Tanov, its Shimmer collection features oval-shaped brass tiles that, when pinned to the wall en masse, should sparkle like the surface of the ocean hit by the late-morning Californian sun. Dreamy...
