

news

THE FINISHING TOUCH cotton on

Transport your tree to the city of Copenhagen with Ferm Living's illustrative fabric decorations, each of which captures a unique element of the Danish capital. A nutcracker-style guardsman, the country's national bird, the mute swan, and some of the city's iconic buildings are depicted in charming embroidery on a base of organic cotton filled with recycled polyester. £12 each (kagu-interiors.co.uk)

THE INVESTMENT BUY plain sailing

Bulky bookcases be gone! Described as 'elegant, light and timeless' by its designer, architect David Lopez Quincoces, the Sailor storage piece for Living Divani features shelves with rounded lower halves anchored to hexagonal metal poles inspired by the lines on a boat. 'It's a contrast between two different design languages – the gentle shape of the shelves and the rigidity of the vertical posts,' says Lopez Quincoces. Available as a 1950s-style, floor-to-ceiling design (which also functions as a room divider) or a wall-mounted version, the piece can be added to with enclosed storage units, as well as tailored in multiple heights, lengths and shelf configurations. Composition shown, £29,877.85 (livingdivani.it)

TREAT YOURSELF playful perch

The Smile pouf by Italian design duo Marconato & Zappa – with its cheerful halo of ash surrounding an irresistibly squashy seat – is in a permanently good mood. The nifty timber loop also doubles as a handle and backrest. It can be stained in an array of finishes, as well as lacquered in a selection of brights, while the seat comes in a litany of fabrics, including weave-of-the-moment bouclé.

From £1,180 (chaplins.co.uk)

THE POWER PATTERN wanderlust weave

Textile house Jane Churchill's newest fabric and wallpaper collection is bursting with covetable graphic shapes, vivid colours and playful patterns. Realised in handcrafted weaves and bold prints, these motifs clash and complement each other in equal measure. The Ira fabric (on headboard) draws its triangle pattern from classic kilims – team it with other inky-hued pieces from the range to create a sense of faraway lands. £79m (janechurchill.com)

january 2021

Livingetc

design for life

LEADING CREATIVES
SHARE THEIR MOOD
ENHANCING MANIFESTOS

HOMES THAT ARE FULL OF CHEER

HOW TO START AND GROW YOUR INTERIORS BRAND

TECH REPORT - THE LATEST INNOVATIONS

50 under £50

THE COOLEST
LAST-MINUTE
GIFTS

order in the house

SMART STORAGE TO MAXIMISE EVERY INCH

dream big

US$9.99 CAN$10.19 AU$10.99 NZ$13

