Living Divani presents the new catalogue Next 2024

Codes of refinement encounter the nature's emotive instinct, enhancing relaxed silhouettes with timeless aesthetic. Living Divani's new proposals are revealed and portrayed through the pictures of Tommaso Sartori, exploring concepts of beauty, of a world built on memories. Every situation expresses a contemporary vision through a unique combination of daring and delicacy, fearless spirit and bourgeois elegance.

The style is immediately recognisable: authentic and graceful craft objects.

The new catalogue explores also the open-air with images that enhance the contemporary outdoor, balanced on the characteristics of the existing. The contrast between different materials, distinctive lines and anthropic volumes, enrich the atmosphere with new poetry. Each element belonging to the scene is studied in detail, and not only in relation to its essence, but also to the specific architectural context.

The dialogue between design and nature connects all spaces of the project in an original and measured production, enhanced by the refined styling selection by Elisa Ossino Studio;
