D I V A N I

March-April 2020

Especially in moments like these, when we are asked to stay at home, our gardens, terraces and verandas represent a huge resource, able to give us moments of breath, peace and tranquility: a calm atmosphere where to stop and take a rest, suspended in time and space, poised between dream and reality. Living Divani furnishings are perfect in accompanying body and mind in relaxing experiences; with their silent elegance made of delicate and sinuous lines, natural colors and material research, they integrate themselves perfectly in the outdoor spaces, respecting the spontaneous and lively nature, without renouncing to their style and impeccable trait.

Flow

The Flow rocking chair is the perfect solution on a lush green lawn or on a terrace in the city. It receives the body and accompanies your relaxation as you vanish into the sunshine, or into a cloud of thought, observing the world from new angles.

As you probably already know, the annual edition of Salone del Mobile.Milano has been postponed to 2021. It represents the right choice, dictated by the emergency and the uncertain situation we are living. But we believe in the strength of the entire design system, and we are confident that together we will be able to proudly overcome this difficult moment. Although we must temporarily suspend our production activity, we are grabbing this opportunity to think about the future and focus on its resources.

We invite you to follow our social profiles and to interact with us to share our sophisticated style and discover always new and original interpretations of the silent elegance we have always been spokesperson.

Finally, we remind you that our commercial and marketing front offices are always operational, in smart working, and available for any necessity.
